Research postgraduate students are required to submit a thesis/portfolio to fulfill the graduation requirement. The copyright of the thesis/portfolio belongs to the student. However, to provide a wider accessibility of the theses/portfolios for scholastic and academic purposes, students will be required to grant the University a worldwide irrevocable, non exclusive right in respect of the copyright in the thesis/portfolio for the purpose of making copies, abstracts, reproducing or otherwise dealing with the thesis/portfolio by whatever means, including but not limited to, digitizing, storing, reproducing, and distributing the thesis/portfolio in any media and in any format, provided that any and all such acts are only for scholastic and academic purposes and with proper acknowledgement of authorship. The right is for the term of the existence of copyright in the thesis/portfolio.

If you do not confirm your acceptance of the offer online with deposit paid by the given deadline, we shall assume that you decide not to enroll in the programme and our offer will be automatically withdrawn.
